Products

Eva Szabo Skin Care Salons use and sell a wide variety of products, formulated for Women and Men of any age and specialized products for troubled Teenage skin.

The products originate from Europe, Israel and the United States, offering the finest ingredients and formulas that enhance the latest skin care technologies.

Eva Szabo also creates her own line of skin care, available in limited quantities. Eva's creams and lotions are made using only those special ingredients found in Nature. Her formulas were developed by Hungarian and Viennese dermatologists more than half a century ago; and are still getting results today.

Essential oils are the key components of these products. Each leaf, petal, stem and root yield special healing properties, as each living plant contains these aromatic oils. These oils play a key role in the health and luster of your skin.

Eva Szabo Salons are available for birthdays, graduations, anniversaries and bachelorette parties. Groups of 3 or more may receive discounts on facial and massage services, according to size and availability. Please call at least 2 months in advance so that we may help you plan your "Pampering Party". We look forward to celebrating your special day!

Eva Szabo now offers discounts for our Business partners in the community, helping to create employee rewards, and incentive programs. Please call for individual pricing and availability and we can work together to create a plan that works for you!
